1. Initial technical preparations have been made for paratroop training in the Czechoslovak Army. By order of the Ministry for National Defense, a cadre of between 800 and 1000 men has been selected to begin the training courses. The final composition of the Instructors' Corps has not yet been decided upon, but it will probably be composed of members of the eastern Army.
 2. Paratroop training will be given at the Zakupy airfield (051/F85), east of Ceska Lipa (Böhmisch Leips) (F75) in the Sudetenland, where a large air corps organization is being built up.
